One Flew Over The Cuckoo's Nest

Parker Players Dramatically Build on last Summer's Success

Last Summer's production of 12 Angry Men, performed by Parker Players Theater Company, was an absolute success. Each performance was crammed with tension and drama as 12 overworked and tired men toiled in the Summer heat as they determined the fate of a boy accused of the murder of his father.

As each juror revealed their hidden, or sometimes not so hidden, prejudices, the theater audience sat alongside the jurors, creeping closer and closer to the truth.

Directed by: Richard Dominick

This Summer, experience the struggle of wills between a rebellious, asylum patient and the passive-aggressive nurse who dominates and intimidates the men entrusted to her care.

Richard Dominick will once again steer the Players through the trubulent waters of tension, joy, confrontation and heartache. Don't miss your opportunity to support this captivating drama.
